We Care

atterburytrust.org

We love to give because we care

Over a period of more than 25 years, Atterbury Trust has grown into a substantial non-profit aid organization with support and assistance from a large base of like-minded individuals and organisations who also love to give. This has given rise to a sizeable benefit platform from which to provide support to those members of our society who need it the most.

We support disadvantaged students and educational initiatives, provide donated agricultural products to the needy, make sure the people of Pretoria West receive medical care with dignity, assist with Afrikaans language music and performing arts endeavours, as well as provide for selected communities in need of care.

Atterbury Trust has gained significant experience over the years in managing responsible philanthropy. The trust has all the necessary systems in place for efficient general and financial management of aid organisations. Our professional team of experts also has the necessary relevant skills to effectively manage and maintain the social responsibility budgets of other organizations on their behalf.

Students and education

Atterbury Trust's innovative bursary loan schemes have given nearly 800 talented and needy young people the opportunity to further their studies over more than 25 years. On average, there are around 100 tertiary students we support in this way each year.

Mentorship is just as important as financial aid to Atterbury Trust. That's why we build relationships with our supported students through individual mentorship sessions, workshops, networking events and job placement assistance.

The trust is also actively involved with several schools in disadvantaged areas. Monthly support for the remuneration of Afrikaans teachers and infrastructure improvements are provided. Additionally, school communities form part of our extensive network of benefactors, as philanthropy means so much more than just financial aid!

Moedertaal Ontwikkeling Inisiatief (MOI)

The innovative Mother Tongue Development Initiative (MOI) is a high school scholarship program that aims to provide comprehensive support to impoverished, Afrikaans-speaking learners from coloured communities in the Western Cape, who show strong leadership qualities, good character, and the desire to learn and excel.

MOI is managed by a passionate team of experts from Atterbury Trust's Stellenbosch office.

In just three years, 75 learners have already achieved a 100% pass rate in 14 high schools. Our medium-term goal is to support at least 500 high school learners within a few years.

Terugploeg

SA's farming community also loves to give back. With the help of Terugploeg, donated agricultural products are distributed responsibly among organizations that support those in need.

However, this is not all. The job opportunities at Terugploeg's processing facility in Rayton, outside of Pretoria, provides a critical way of supporting people who need help in improving their own lives.

The innovative Terugploeg Boersaam initiative provides the public with an opportunity to donate cattle that are managed as commercial herds by participating farmers. As these herds expand through natural growth, a sustainable revenue stream can be assured.

Triomf Clinic

Atterbury Trust manages the Pretoria-West based Triomf Clinic to provide medical care with dignity to this poor community. For the past nine years, the people of the area have trusted the clinic's team of volunteer doctors, medical personnel and other experts to provide the services they would struggle to afford by themselves.

As more medical personnel volunteer free help, additional patients can be assisted.

Atterbury Theatre

The arts occupy a special place in our hearts at Atterbury Trust and we support musicians and performing artists in various ways, including through the management of Atterbury Theatre, which provides a world-class theatre experience to the public.

Even during the restrictive Covid period, we made sure things went smoothly with innovations such as online concerts.

These days, the theatre in Pretoria East is thriving again with fans returning to enjoy a wide variety of excellent performances.

Annually, the Atterbury National Piano Competition strives to find South Africa's most promising young pianists, thus filling a gap for young pianists to compete on a national stage.

A blend of benevolence

At the end of January when summer reaches its peak in the Cape, friends of Versnit gather on the lush green lawns of Rust en Vrede in Stellenbosch to enjoy a blend of the best Afrikaans music, wine and friendship.

Through Versnit, more than R13 million has already been raised to support the extensive benevolence activities of Atterbury Trust.

A special word of thanks to Versnit's premium sponsors Jean Engelbrecht, Toyota and Lexus, who annually make a significant contribution to the success of this unique fundraising initiative.
